

u3a Playing Day with Caroline Jones

Monday 21st September 2026

All recorder players are welcome to join this typically varied Playing Day with well-known conductor Caroline Jones. Renaissance to 21st Century music with a few twists along the way. All delivered in a supportive and lively environment.

Place: Longmore Room, Trinity Centre, Church Hill, Mill Street, Sutton Coldfield, West Midlands, B72 1TF

Time: 10:00 - 16:00

Doors open 9.45

Cost: £20.00 is payable in advance; Payment: Jane Hetherington:

janeh1234@aol.com Contact Jane for the BACS details.

We hope to reach out to all recorder players for what promises to be a day full of beautiful music with likeminded friends both old and new.

Contact: Val McCarroll, recorderadviseru3a@hotmail.com

Information required please send to Val.

Name:

Contact Number

Contact email address:

Emergency Contact Number:

Emergency contact name:

My level of ability: Beginner/ Intermediate/ Advanced

Instruments I would like to play:

	I wish to play- Choose
Sopranino
Descant
Treble
Tenor
Bass
Contrabass
Great Bass

Disabled parking needed? Yes/ NoParking

There are a limited number of places available at the Trinity Centre.
Please car share if you can.

Nearest local car parks: Sutton Coldfield Station, Station Street, Pay and Display.

Train Station: 5 minutes away Sutton Coldfield.

Buses can be found at the parade Sutton Coldfield.

Please bring your recorders, music stands, and pencil.

Also, to help with catering would you bring your own mug.

Refreshments will be available throughout the day. Please bring a packed lunch. Local shops are available in Sutton Coldfield.

Thank you

Jane Hetherington Sutton Coldfield u3a Recorder
Ensemble

Val McCarroll

Recorder Adviser u3a UK

